

Roxane Gay, as the 2018 William A. Starr Distinguished Lecturer, will be discussing her best-selling book Bad Feminist.

Roxane Gay is an essayist; contributing opinion writer for the New York Times; best-selling author of numerous books, including Hunger and Difficult Women; and a sought after cultural critic. Her New York Times best-selling book, Bad Feminist, was chosen as the common reading for the Vassar class of 2022. She will present the 2018 William Starr Distinguished Lecture at Vassar College on Wednesday, November 7th starting at 5:30 pm in the Chapel. The title of her talk is "Roxane Gay: With One N."

The lecture is free and open to the public. Sponsored by The Office of the Dean of the Faculty, the First-Year Writing Seminar Program, and the Vassar First-Year Program.

Vassar College strives to make its events, performances, and facilities accessible to all. Individuals with disabilities requiring special accommodations must contact the Office of Campus Activities at least 48 hours in advance of an event, Mondays-Fridays, at (845)437-5370. Without sufficient notice, appropriate space / and or assistance may not be available. For detailed information about accessibility to specific campus facilities, search for "campus accessibility information" on the Vassar homepage <http://www.vassar.edu>.

Directions to the Vassar campus, located at 124 Raymond Avenue in Poughkeepsie, NY, are available at <http://www.vassar.edu/directions>

Posted by Office of Communications Monday, October 8, 2018